- a. Amend to strike the following sentence in Section 166.01: "~~This ordinance does not establish a right to counsel in eviction proceedings or in administrative proceedings that may result in the termination of a tenant's rental housing subsidy but rather codifies the Right to Counsel Program subject to the availability of funding and annual appropriations.~~"
- b. Amend Section 166.03 B. to clarify that a responsible agency must provide a notice in the case of a rental housing subsidy termination as follows:
  - i. A landlord, housing authority, or other responsible agency shall also serve a copy of the RTCP Notice on the tenant in any of the following situations:
    - (1) ~~along with~~ attached to a copy of any Eviction Notice served on the tenant;
    - (2) ~~along with~~ attached to any notice of termination of a rental housing subsidy if such notice is served by the landlord; and
    - (3) ~~along with~~ attached to any correspondence served by the landlord on the tenant concerning an administrative proceeding that may result in the termination of the tenant's rental housing subsidy.

In each of the situations (1) through (3) described above, the landlord, housing authority, or responsible agency shall provide a copy of the RTCP Notice in the tenant's primary language. If the tenant's primary language is not known or a translation of the RTCP Notice into the tenant's primary language is not available from the Department's website, the landlord, housing authority, or responsible agency shall provide a copy of the RTCP Notice in English plus a copy of each RTCP Notice that the Department has translated and made available on its website in the languages included in Tiers 1, 2, and 3 of the CIFD's LAP.
