Comments for Public Posting: I strongly oppose 24-0876. The stakeholders should continue to decide who represents them as their local leaders. If the community wants to support a candidate who has been part of a neighborhood council for many terms, they should have the freedom to do so if they feel that candidate truly represents them with regards to the issues that community faces. Many NCS already have a youth seat and many times that seat remains vacant for years. The neighborhood council should be able to decide when is the right time to open up a youth seat. Let us not take the autonomy that the Los Angeles City Charter has given to neighborhood councils.
