

Communication from Public

Name: Caro Vilain

Date Submitted: 10/30/2023 08:32 AM

Council File No: 23-1051

Comments for Public Posting: When it comes to traffic violence, there's no such thing as an accident. By using this word, we make it easy to brush off a murder, and to avoid changing anything after someone gets killed or injured on our streets. Let's stop fooling ourselves, and call traffic violence for what it is. I strongly support this item.