Comments for Public Posting: Is this a joke? Because he checked all the virtue signaling boxes you want to honor him with Stairs? Why don't you name the stairs at the complex in Koreatown where he got his son the sweet rental deal? With ALL the things going on, this is how you all spend time? No wonder I've had the same transients across from the park for over 5 years now in their Garcetti provided tents. You all would starve if any of you had to get a real job.
