Comments for Public Posting: As someone who just purchased a property nearby this proposed development, I am wholeheartedly against this development in the middle of our RA zoned area. I wouldn't have moved here knowing that a seven story apartment building would be built less than a block away from me. High density housing is absolutely unacceptable here and I am AGAINST this development.

Comments for Public Posting: We, the residents of the Reseda Farms neighborhood, are strongly AGAINST this new construction, which will threaten to destroy the nature of our area to its core” or something like that.
