Comments for Public Posting: On behalf of the West Adams Heritage Association, Adams Dockweiler Heritage Organizing Committee, and numerous other stakeholders who are aggrieved parties, we are writing to object to the ED1 proposed All-Affordable building exemption ordinance. We earnestly request amendments with language that will protect our vulnerable historic resources, including the HPOZ in which we live. We are Professors at USC who are stakeholders and preservationists. We are writing as 44-year resident homeowners of an LA Historic Cultural Monument #561 (the Allen House 1889) in the University Park HPOZ. We strongly object to this badly written ordinance which will signal the demise of historic context of all historic districts and greatly detract from one of the many jewels of the City of Angeles: our history.
