Comments for Public Posting: Dear Mover TRACI PARK and Second ADRIN NAZARIAN, I am writing as a life long Dodger fan and ticket member. I have no clue why the city wants to continue to do business with Frank McCourt. The man made a mockery of our beloved Dodgers. Yet we keep trying backroom deals to appease a man who doesn't have enough money to justify the influence. The Gondola would be a more welcome idea if he, a man who ran the Dodgers into the ground to benefit himself, wasn't involved. Why???? Even the current Dodger owners, who are THE MODEL for exemplar sports ownership is distancing itself. Shouldn't that give you a clue???? I'm sorry - I know going to Dodger Stadium can suck. But man - this is way worse. This flags corruption to me in a way I wouldn't otherwise be paying attention to. Be Good To Yourself,
Nick Satyal

Comments for Public Posting: I am very concerned about this proposal to exempt Olympics projects from the regulations, requirements, and reviews that are necessary to preventing unlawful and unethical projects. This proposal rings all the "city corruption" alarms. The council and city could then just label anything as an "Olympic" project to get around regulatory processes that have been created for a reason. I am especially concerned this would be used to let the billionaire stadium owners get their private gondola project glide through the city approvals process without any oversight.
