Comments for Public Posting: hello. third gen angeleno here. for the love of our city, for the history of the culture, for affordable housing, for consideration to one's neighbors, for equal opportunity to live in and thrive in this city, i am asking that you put sensible regulation in place to prevent the proliferation of short term rentals. specifically, capping the amount of nights a landlord is able to rent out their place (30 or 60 nights per year) seems like a reasonable rule. we want neighbors in our residential communities, not permanent airbnbs.
