

Dear LA City Council,

I became a father in June and since then I have been interested engaging with my city's officials. I decided to begin my civic engagement by attending Council Meetings but have been completely discouraged by the hateful language and disruptive behavior.

I urge Councilmembers to make Council Meetings a safe space where everyone is allowed to express their opinions and concerns without being intimidated.

Jeremiah Baca
5310 Roseland St, Los Angeles, CA 90016