Comments for Public Posting: Who the fuck do you people think that you are? You're not doctors or psychiatrists!!!!!! You can't just unilaterally decide that a pet is an emotional support animal so as to circumvent a written contract that you have allowed someone to violate. What the fuck is wrong with you people and your continuation of efforts to strip property owners of their rights and have no accountability to tenants who willfully violate a written contract with terms of which they agreed. No wonder people no longer want to be housing providers. You people should just buy out all owners and start managing property yourself so you can see how it feels when someone destroys your property, ruin your credit and some asshole tries to strip you of your recourse.
