Comments for Public Posting: I appreciate and respect any group that comes together to work proactively to represent their community. However, these groups do not have the same requirements that Neighborhood Councils have to make sure that they follow the Brown Act. This might be an issue in some situations that they are not representing their community to the same standard that Neighborhood Councils are held to. I also have concerns that communities that have these groups would in some ways be receiving double representation with the City Council if they are allowed more than the standard public comment. This also does not imply fair and equal representation of all Los Angeles city stakeholders. My suggestion is that these groups partner with their local Neighborhood Council(s) and add their formal letters as support to a CIS from a Neighborhood Council. Thank you, Jennifer Clark Board Member of North Hollywood North East Neighborhood Council
