Comments for Public Posting: I'm ready for Los Angeles to Skip the Stuff. Please require takeout and delivery “extras” — like single-use utensils, straws, condiments, napkins, and more — to be provided only upon request for takeout, delivery, and third-party delivery apps operating in Los Angeles. If you need them, you can get them. If you don't, no need to waste. Switching to an “upon request” model reduces unnecessary waste, pollution, litter and saves restaurants money. Nationwide, billions of food accessories are thrown away each year, many of which aren't even used once. We're ready to change that. Draft the legislation requiring that all foodware accessories are available ONLY upon request. This is a simple step toward a BIG problem. Let's clean up our act and skip the stuff together.
