Comments for Public Posting: Latinos are not represented at all in the Los Angeles City Employees' Retirement System (LACERS) Board. In fact, Latinos are underrepresented in 46 of 51, or over 90% of commissions. This is not acceptable in a representative government, especially in a city that has more than 2.1 million Latinos. The odds are someone can find a qualified candidate that is one in a million. Continued on the following three pages.
