Communication from Public

Name:

Date Submitted: 10/30/2023 09:46 AM

Council File No: 23-1051

Comments for Public Posting: Accidents aren't really accidents, they are preventable if we changed road design By calling a crash an "accident" it's disrespectful to those that have been killed and injured, implying it just happened randomly and there's nothing we can do to prevent things like this in the future I support using "crash" in lieu of "accident"