Comments for Public Posting: Dear councilmembers, According to the Report from Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority dated 05/08/2024, the plan for the LA Grand Hotel is by July 31 to be "fully demobilized (site is cleaned and prepared to be returned to the owner)." Why is the city returning the LA Grand Hotel to its owner Wei Huang, who was convicted in Federal court for bribing confessed racketeer former councilmember Jose Huizar and is a fugitive from justice? Under California's Section 1090, this property can be seized for the public good due to the proven public corruption associated with its development. Why is the city paying a criminal to house people experiencing homelessness in his hotel, and planning to hand the hotel back to him? Use the anti-corruption statute as it was intended: take the LA Grand and use it for the public good! Sincerely, Kim Cooper & Richard Schave Esotouric
