Councilmember Bob Blumenfield,

While the tourism industry is poised to continue to grow as Los Angeles gears up to host the 2026 World Cup, 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games, and other mega-events, wages remain insufficient for tourism workers to continue to live in Los Angeles and surrounding cities as the region grapples with an unprecedented housing and healthcare affordability crisis

I urge you to vote for higher wages and benefits for tourism workers. And I am not alone: the Tourism Workers Rising coalition of over 150 community organizations and 360 small businesses across Los Angeles is urging city leaders to vote yes on this strong policy that will improve the lives of thousands of tourism workers.

Heed their call and vote for the Olympic Wage for hospitality workers.
