Councilmember Nithya Raman,

Thank you for voting for the Olympic Wage for hospitality workers. We must ensure that tourism workers are healthy and housed. Thank you for working to strengthen and expand worker protections.

Thank you.

Subject: I reject higher wages for tourism workers (File # 14-1371-S13)

Councilmember John Lee,

To the Honorable Members of the City Council,

With the City facing financial crisis and billions wasted on ineffective homeless programs, it is clear that current leadership has lost credibility in responsibly managing public funds and policy.

I strongly urge you to rescind the City's "sanctuary" status for individuals who are in the country illegally and have committed crimes. Instead, it is time to prioritize the safety and wellbeing of law-abiding, taxpaying citizens.

Our communities deserve a sanctuary from the rampant crime, open-air drug markets, and widespread homelessness that have overtaken our neighborhoods. The current policies that permit thousands to live in squalor—on sidewalks and in parks, surrounded by human waste, used needles, and the stench of decay—are inhumane and unacceptable.

Crime is out of control. Robberies, arson, looting, and open drug dealing go unpunished. We've seen entire neighborhoods destroyed and thousands of homes lost to fires linked to encampments. Over 2,000 people die on our streets each year—often from overdose, violence, or neglect—under the very policies meant to "help" them.

It is time for real action. Follow the lead of other cities that have successfully:

- Banned homeless encampments in public areas,
- Prohibited open drug use and drug sales,
- Reinstated law enforcement's ability to uphold existing laws.

Our city cannot survive this ongoing neglect. Restore order. Restore public safety. Restore dignity to our communities.

Respectfully,

A Safer Community

Honorable Los Angeles City Council President Harris-Dawson,

Thank you for your support for the Olympic Wage, Council President. The whole country is struggling with a high cost of living and wages that are not matching what it takes to simply live. We all are rooting for Los Angeles right now, which is leading the way.

Thank you for standing with workers.

I urge you to vote for higher wages and benefits for tourism workers. And I am not alone: the Tourism Workers Rising coalition of over 150 community organizations and 360 small businesses across Los Angeles is urging city leaders to vote yes on this strong policy that will improve the lives of thousands of tourism workers.

Honorable Los Angeles City Council President Harris-Dawson,

Thank you for your support for the Olympic Wage, Council President. The whole country is struggling with a high cost of living and wages that are not matching what it takes to simply live. We all are rooting for Los Angeles right now, which is leading the way.

Thank you for standing with workers.
