

Communication from Public

Name: Susan Rocha

Date Submitted: 09/14/2024 09:56 AM

Council File No: 14-1371-S13

Comments for Public Posting: Some employees should not make more money than professionals with degrees and/or licenses. A nanny or hotel worker or fast food worker should not make more money than a nurse or teacher or insurance agent. Professionals should make more money than those with less education unless they own their own business. The marketplace should determine wages and not government.