

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to share my concerns about the foul and hateful language that's been used at Council meetings. This type of behavior disrupts and waste time that could be spent addressing the issues we care about.

I urge you to take action so the community and their input is respected.

Soila R, CD7, 91342