Comments for Public Posting: Why on earth would we allow the police to fund an investigation into themselves that they conduct? Stop wasting our time with motions like this. They are bad and they somehow make you all look even worse which is honestly an astounding accomplishment at this point. This is a conflict of interests that a first grader would be able to spot. How could you call the national POLICE foundation an independent body when it's about investigating the police? What are you smoking, Monica?

Comments for Public Posting: Anyone with half a brain would realize the ethical and moral implications of letting a Police Foundation fund an “independent” investigation into the misdeeds of LAPD during the George Floyd. It would be a complete miscarriage of justice to not fund an actually independent investigation into this matter.

Comments for Public Posting: What exactly was going through your mind when you thought it would be a good idea to tie the money to investigate police brutality to the police? This is a horrible idea, absolutely do not put the police in charge of the investigation!

Comments for Public Posting: Don't do this. The police need independent oversight. They don't need more money. They need less money.

Comments for Public Posting: What part of “DEFUND” do you not understand? What part of “the people want investment in social services to uplift their communities” do you not understand?!
