Comments for Public Posting: I am in favor of the movement to declare the Chile Bowl building at 12244 West Pico Blvd (W. Los Angeles) a permanent landmark. I believe this building significantly represents a quickly fading part of Los Angeles's unique and special past as does "Randy's Doughnuts", the hot dog stand "Tail of the Pup" (which is now gone) and many more - see attached photos. These iconic Los Angeles photos are from the book "California Crazy & Beyond" by Jim Heimann published 2001.
