Comments for Public Posting: Dear Hon decisionmakers and CM Gil Cedillo, The Year is 2021 post pandemic The Lincoln Heights Jail must be redeveloped for 100% EXTREMELY LOW INCOME affordable housing if you want to be equitable and just. This is what the people need and want. This is a JAIL that predated on the people the city is trying to push out for market rate condos. You dont turn jails into luxury housing. The jails belong to the People. Fifteengroup, who the city partnered with, bought Wyvernwood, and theyre trying to illegally evict families and turn a privately owned project into market rate housing. This is an atrocity to working class families and we don't want fifteengroup in Lincoln Heights. Because theyre racist and lack a moral compass. That about all. Think about Bloody Christmas and the Zoot Suit Riots. We want the JAIL because its public property. That means it belongs to the people. Not Miami developers cashing in on the inequitable real estate grab greenwashed la river revitalization plan and violent CASP. Thsi is not not PC or equitable zoning. The whole plan for the JAIL the city has in the mix- needs to be revised and probably even crumpled up into a ball and thrown into the trashcan. Thank you for your Time because Lincoln Heights doesnt have any Lincoln Heights Intel
