Comments for Public Posting: I attempted to participate in the recent Neighborhood Council elections. After submitting my request, I was initially told that I had requested a ballot for the wrong district and I was sent a ballot corresponding to the Council for my residence. After I received the correct ballot, I was not able to find informational or position statements from the eligible candidates in time for the voting deadline (which was not clearly listed on the ballot) so, I opted not to send the ballot in. I would like to request that some information about the candidates accompany the ballot or be easily available in future elections. I think it would be better, and perhaps encourage wider participation, if the Neighborhood Council election more closely resembled other elections in the process, dissemination of information, and clear guidelines for the voter to know the proper district or area of residence.
