Comments for Public Posting: I cannot believe that the members of the City Council would even consider adopting a plan for persons to go to scenes of "UNREST" completely unprotected. Would you send your children into a family dispute on their own? My lord, it is difficult enough for the Police to quiet violent civil disruptions. They can be extremely dangerous. Please disabuse yourselves of any notion that sending unarmed persons into dangerous situations unarmed is a good idea. I can imagine having trained psychologists accompany Police into these very dangerous situations, but only if they have the same body armor, protective clothing and helmets as police and they are trained in the use of pepper spray and are directed to use it in self defense if necessary. Reform in the absence of good sense is a calamity waiting to happen.
