Summary: The Central Hollywood Neighborhood Council understands the desire of Judge Carter and our housed residents that unhoused individuals should not be forced to shelter in underpasses and near freeways. However, criminalizing people for doing so when there are no other feasible options is not a viable solution and is contrary to both Judge Carter's order and Martin v Boise. The CHNC therefore opposes the draft ordinance amending LAMC 41.18 and 56.11 and instead supports the Bonin-Ryu substitute motion.
