Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely
Karen Brooks

Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely
Davina Bar

Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways. My brother in law worked at this site where community gathers in the early days, and it continues to be a community gathering place, a recreational site, and an oasis for the neighborhood in a highly developed area.

The iconic Sportsman's Lodge has already been demolished, in favor of an overdeveloped mini-mall, another iconic gathering place taken away and creating even more traffic. The demolition of Weddington takes away not only a historic community gathering place but an important watershed along the Los Angeles River. With the significant tree canopy, it also cools the ever heating city of Los Angeles and planet.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely,
Tracey Hughes

PS. I have not seen a revised Environmental Impact Report for this devastating plan by HW, which proposes ripping out the mature growth trees and green space and replaces it with big buildings and artificial turf which increases heat index in a already hot zone. This plan doesn't make sense and ruins a residential community which relies on the greenspace and recreational area.

Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely
Adam Libarkin

Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely
Pamela Friedman

Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for is planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely
 Thomas Phelps

Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for is planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely

Thank You,

Gary Rose

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for is planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely

AUGUST 28, 2021

Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I am including the letter I share sentiments on, from the others who agree with me, below.

But first, here is a copy of my personal thoughts that I shared at one of the zoom group sessions discussing the facility's historic value:

WEDDINGTON GOLF & TENNIS CLUB

Studio City Golf & Tennis is one of the few remaining vestiges of quaint, and historically, since the 1950s, inclusive COMMUNITY left in LA. This beautiful little gem offers residents a place to maintain social, mental, and physical health in an idyllic natural setting. It's been a place of respite for many, for years—a place where one may rub elbows with celebrities, while at the same time

one of the only places in LA where everybody TRULY knows your name. From the moment I drive into the parking lot, to the moment I leave, on any given day, I can NOT count the number of "Hi, Beverlys" I may hear. I've killed time between tennis matches sitting at the café counter, chatting with the likes of Guns N' Roses over eggs and coffee, I've practiced at the driving range beside Robert Morse, I've played tennis with geese, hawks, butterflies, dragonflies, and bees overhead.

Most importantly, I've found my own social POD of tennis players, who've been my saving grace through the years. We've supported each other through death, illness, aging, and celebrations, but already, I've lost too many to of my circle to none other than Braemar, Toluca Lake, Mulholland, and Mountaingate country clubs. Since the takeover of Harvard-Westlake, it's become more difficult and less attractive to establish play and court time, and many people have moved on to the dues-paying clubs instead. Unfortunately, many like myself, don't have such luxurious options. It IS the city, or nothing. I've experienced the loss of the Racket club on Ventura, and the steady decline of VNSO and Balboa. The loss of Studio City Golf & Tennis would be unimaginable. Please THANK YOU, for preserving the standing AS IS of this amazing diamond in the rough. It is our community gem.

I live less than 50 feet from the beautiful putting green. I see it from my window. This is a wonderful oasis and buffer from the traffic on Ventura that will likely increase due to construction near Sportsman's Lodge and other projects that front the facility and river space from Whitsett to Coldwater. We live with the busy fire station that was moved/constructed near the remaining tennis courts of the facility. And many residents are fighting the flight path change from Burbank Airport that has created such stress from unceasing daily low-flying aircraft from 7:00AM to as late as 11:00PM. To have this one refuge is a blessing. Please consider the loss of something as sacred as this space as a loss of what makes Studio City a standout neighborhood.

Sincerely,

Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for is planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely

Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I remember when (and why) this place was called "Kirkwood's" back in the proverbial day....an early metaphor for the mixing of Hollywood media and sport to come. I also know it to be (along with the CBS Radford Studio half a mile to the East) one of the two major social, economic, media and real estate "anchors" of studio City, a key element of the appeal and 'cachet' of this area in general...so:

I do urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

Will the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written???. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

I'm understanding, but not sympathetic to Harvard-Westlake school. They were GIVEN the land the school in Studio City sits on, and their wealthy alumni have used a big endowment to bully Studio City into giving up a historical, and beneficial landmark property due to THE EXCESSIVE, UNDENIABLE GREED OF THE WATERED DOWN REMNANTS OF THE WEDDINGTON FAMILY, WHO FAILED TO RESPECT THE LEGACY OF THE ORIGINAL WEDDINGTONS, WHO LOVED THE VALLEY

The property has for generations been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues.

Weddington Golf and Tennis occupies a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways AND THE NEIGHBORHOOD ITSELF.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely, Steven White, Studio City, 91604

Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely WILLIAM LYNCH, EUREKA DRIVE, S. CITY 91604

Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely MARGARET LYNCH
