Comments for Public Posting: Please do not follow through with this action. It will have devastating affects on all of us. It's actually surreal that here in the United States we are even at a place where anyone would consider this a good idea. Please be on the correct side of history and do not move forward with this. Anyone reading this and wanting to join the fight against it, please look into the LA County Libertarian Party. You don't need to join the party (if you want to that's great) but we are all very against this and are taking action. We have a referendum drafted and ready to go. If they move forward with this, we will have 30 days to gather just over 40,000 signatures. We need to be organized and ready to take action when the time comes. We are willing to form single issue coalitions across party lines to fight this insanity. lplac.us
