Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely,

Daron Moore

Weddington is where I first started playing real golf, I love this place, I have so many memories here, playing alone in the morning after poker or later in the day with friends, we also frequented the Friday skins game, which are still lots of fun. Please don't replace this green gem with more concrete. Life is unnatural enough. Thank you for your time.

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely,

Dear PLUM Committee:

For decades, Weddington Golf and Tennis has represented an ideal that the rest of the city should aspire to. It's always been a bit of a sports melting pot where the rich and poor, the young and the old, the famous and not famous residents of this city, from all races, creeds, walks of life would come together to learn, or refine their love of the games of golf and tennis.

And now an elite private school wants to take that land and decimate it so that the kids of rich Angelenos will have a slightly nicer place to play? Please don't let that happen.

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I am a lifelong studio city resident who quite honestly grew up at studio city golf and tennis. I have since gone on to attend Claremont McKenna where I won a National championship as captain of the golf team.

I also experienced my college home course closing, being redeveloped into apartment buildings and all of the memories driven away

I have 1 legitimate question for the committee that I would greatly appreciate a response on. If we allow a private institution to buy their way into our City and rip away an entire community who cherishes studio city golf and tennis — what does this say about studio city. Is this a city with values, with morales, with meaning, with any sense of greater good? And further is this a place I should continue to live or consider raising a family in.

What it seems to me is that without designating studio city golf and tennis as a historical cultural monument — the city is saying that what we value above all else is money. That if you have acces to private institutions and limitless funds you can have whatever you want. And if you value institutions that provide a public service, that enrich our community, that bring people together— all of that matters less than the bottom line

Having said that — I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

p.s.: Weddington (not its original name) has been a fixture in my life since growing up in the Valley in the 50's and 60's. I've taken lessons, played tennis and am now golfing there weekly even though I now live in Thousand Oaks.
