Comments for Public Posting: Dear Honorable PLUM Committee: I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code. As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for is planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways. Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations. Sincerely Kelli Dryden

Weddington has been a respite in all my years in LA, a part of the community, a community in itself. Even more so during the pandemic. My life would be changed for the worse if it were taken from the community. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Comments for Public Posting: Dear City of Los Angeles PLUM Committee, I am writing to strongly urge the City of Los Angeles PLUM Committee to adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission (CHC) on April 15, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined "that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code." This property has been significant for generations of people, and has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and/or ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues. Weddington Golf and Tennis is unique in that it is between a public municipal course, and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis has complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in the Studio City-area. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 trees, including palm, eucalyptus, and pine, which define the fairways. In closing, to imagine any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post World War II-era recreational facility will result in a significant loss of heritage to Studio City. I respectfully urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for current and future generations to come. Best, Victoria Miller

Comments for Public Posting: As a long-time resident of Studio City, I strongly support the Cultural Heritage Commission's Findings to designate the entire site of the Studio City Golf and Tennis Club as a Historic-Cultural Monument. This site embodies all the elements of nondiscriminatory inclusiveness since the 1950s. the need for open space and the preservation of this important community asset. I urge the Planning and Land Use Management to approve this rich cultural site in its entirety as a Los Angeles Historic-Cultural Monument. Elizabeth Dymond 11615 Canton Place Studio City CA 91604
