Comments for Public Posting: Dear PLUM Commissioners: As architectural and cultural historians and tour guides, we write to express our strong support for the Art Deco Society of Los Angeles's nomination of the Howard Hughes HQ Building (7000 Romaine in Hollywood) as a Cultural Heritage Monument in the City of Los Angeles. There has never been another Angeleno anything like Howard Hughes, and the innovative, visionary and transformative professional activities that he engaged in on this site are in themselves cause for making it a landmark. But the building is also a fantastic example of nearly unaltered Art Deco architecture, something that is all too rare in Hollywood or in the world. It would be a gift to the future and a proper recognition of the past to formally designate the Howard Hughes HQ Building as one of the treasures of Los Angeles, and to help ensure that it remains as beautiful, as useful and as meaningful for decades to come. Thank you for your consideration. Sincerely, Kim Cooper & Richard Schave
