Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for is planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Sincerely

I have just moved to the area on Laurel Canyon I love love love this place it makes me feel at peace you always meet someone nice here while golfing or playing tennis. Its 5 minutes and truly is so nice to golf here and see the history of how the river used to be and love that the old owner would golf and look after his herd, of livestock.. this place makes me feel at home.

I was born and raised in Studio City, and have watched how it has transformed for better or worse over the last 30 years. There are very few businesses and landmarks that still stand from my childhood, and as a new mom I hope that one day my daughter will be able to enjoy and admire the same institutions my family did when I was young. Even my husband, who is a relatively new Studio City resident and took up tennis as a way to cope during the pandemic, has been devastated by the possible destruction of Weddington. As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Dear Honorable PLUM Committee:

I urge the PLUM Committee adopt the nomination by the Cultural Heritage Commission on April 15th, 2021, without any revisions, for Studio City Golf and Tennis Club to be included in the list of Historical-Cultural Monuments according to the CHC staff findings as written. The CHC determined " that the property conforms with the definition of a Monument pursuant to Section 22.171.7 of the Los Angeles Administrative Code.

As a property that for generations has been open to everyone regardless of age, gender, and ethnicity for an affordable price without membership dues, Weddington Golf and Tennis is in a unique position between a public, municipal course and a private country club. Weddington Golf & Tennis complemented and supported surrounding suburban development in Studio City. Weddington Golf & Tennis stands out for its planned landscape, specifically, the number and application of over 350 palm, eucalyptus, and pine trees, to define the fairways.

Any proposed demolition of this excellent example of a post WW II Era recreational facility will result in a significant loss to the heritage of Studio City. I urge you to protect this iconic Studio City landmark for future generations.

Best,
Max Riccio
