Comments for Public Posting: I am trying to figure out how you think this is a good idea? You have NO right to dictate how a person lives their life, what they put in their body or who a business decides to let inside their building. Period. Over the past few years you have failed this city which is why it's turned into a complete garbage dump. Now you think that you know what's best for us??? Why don't you put your energy into cleaning up the city and stop trying to tell us where we can and can't go or who is allowed in our businesses.
