Comments for Public Posting: Wow. We can't even get the DBS to inspect Buildings with gross violations, but go ahead, put them in Brown Shirts and start handing out Yellow Stars to segregate and divide Angelenos. I see that you are modeling after NY, San Fran and other areas where there is NO proof of improvement of these draconian measures. Why no model yourselves after Florida who has the lowest cases in the country? I never in my life thought that we would see, in real time, how the extermination of the Jews was allowed to happen. You all must be so proud of yourselves for mandating a Vaccine that has diminished efficacy for a virus that could be slowed by herd immunity. How many boosters will make you all happy? 4, 5, 10? And to deny children at Christmas time from escaping the physiological damage that is being done to them at the schools is just a special touch. Disgusting
