Comments for Public Posting: Regarding redistricting. As a resident of Culver City's Arts District who lives seven houses in from the line between LA and Culver City, allow us in the Helms Bakery area to be absorbed into Culver City. This has been floated to Mayor Fisch and it has had a positive response. We do not want to be included in Los Angeles - Thank you. D Conte

Comments for Public Posting: I am a resident of Shadow Hills, and want to thank the Council for moving the Stonehurst area of Shadow Hills back into CD7, where it belongs, with other horse-keeping, agrarian, animal-keeping, and high-fire areas. We deeply appreciate it.

Comments for Public Posting: This redistricting is lopsided and totally unfair. Equitable areas needs to be revisited to produce viable option/s.

Comments for Public Posting: Los Angeles City Council - adopt a map that reflects an equitable distribution of economic assets by returning USC and Exposition Park, in their entirety, back to Council District 8.

Comments for Public Posting: Councilmembers Krekorian and Raman DO THE RIGHT THING Keep Studio City Hole. Stop the Split. Here is your solution: Redistricting Map Solution for Studio City FACTS: Ideal population per Council District: 260,808. With 10% deviant (+ or-) = 26,080 Studio City whole Population: 37,380 Toluca Lake Population: 13,190 Submitting information from Patty Kirby 11/11/21 Current Redistricting map 11/9/21: CD2: population 250,000 Studio City Currently in CD2 = 8,380 (best estimate) CD4: population 270,000 Studio City Currently in CD4 = 29,000 (best estimate) CD2 CD4 CD2 Current map population: 250,000 CD4 Current map population: 270,000 Move balance of SC from CD4 +29,000 Move SC from CD4 to CD2: -29,000 Move Toluca Lake to CD4 -13,190 Move TL from CD2 to CD4: +13,190 New CD2 Total: 265,810 New CD4 Total: 254,190 Ideal population: 260,808 Ideal population: 260,808 Deviation within 10% 5,002 Deviation within 10% -6,618 Benefits: • Ventura Blvd Specific Plan now would have 3 councilmembers representing. • Studio City Stays Whole, Keeps Toluca Lake Whole • People in Studio City voted for Paul Krekorian in the last election • People in Toluca Lake voted for Nithia Raman in the last election • All communities still connect within the districts It's a no-brainer! Comments for Public Posting: KEEP STUDIO CITY WHOLE!! I am in complete agreement with the Board of the Studio City Neighborhood Council who strongly opposes any redistricting proposal that would split Studio City into separate City Council Districts (2 and 4). Studio City is a small neighborhood within Los Angeles, and the interests of the residents are aligned to the extent that having singular representation continues to be the most sensible protocol. Indeed, it has served us well so far. Please don't fix what's not broken. Thank you.
