Comments for Public Posting: It is time to follow Councilman Buscaino and Krekorian's lead and lift this 'emergency,' and return mom+pop homeowners their property rights. This 'temporary' Emergency has gone on for 20+ months and for what we know the City Council would keep it permanently if nobody speaks up like Buscaino and Krekorian did. It sounds good on paper to continue this in the name of helping the greater good within an endless 'emergency,' but what is really going on is quite atrocious. I am speaking specifically about those gaming the system without any checks and balances from the City Council (likely by design). This has bred more fraud and criminal behavior which will likely to continue past this 'Emergency,' the City Council has failed to enforce any repercussions for fraud, bad-actors and professional tenants in this moratorium. What the City Council is instituting is forcing one segment of society to support another. you cannot legislate the 'poor' into prosperity and vice-versa with legislating the 'wealthy' out of prosperity. What one person receives without working for another person has to work for without receiving. The government cannot give to anybody without the government first taking from somebody else. When half the people get the idea that they do not have to work because the other half is going to take care of them and when the that half gets the idea that it does no good to work because somebody else is going to get what they work. When this happens is it likely the beginning of the end. Please stop take off the noose you have on mom+pop housing providers and create solutions
