Comments for Public Posting: To our esteemed councilmembers, It is imperative that the city of Los Angeles support the guaranteed basic income ideas proposed in council file 22-0013's motion. Guaranteed basic income studies have shown time and time again that this kind of supplemental income can literally pull people out of poverty. That's because poverty is a policy choice. Let's choose to end it today, by utilizing this innovative fund. It should be our priority as a city to create a fund that is universal -- and applies to everyone, regardless of any status.

To our esteemed councilmembers,

It is imperative that the city of Los Angeles support the guaranteed basic income ideas proposed in council file 22-0013's motion.

Guaranteed basic income studies have shown time and time again that this kind of supplemental income can literally pull people out of poverty. That's because poverty is a policy choice. Let's choose to end it today, by utilizing this innovative fund. It should be our priority as a city to create a fund that is universal -- and applies to everyone, regardless of any status.
