Comments for Public Posting: Hello PLUM Committee, My name is Andrea Rojas and I am writing to urge the Committee to list the property at 1271 West 35th Street as a historic landmark. I am a constituent of CD8 and know how much the history of Paul R. Williams means to the neighborhood and overall South Los Angeles. This property is a testament to the challenges he faced, but also to the amazing history he left behind. Despite the fact that he was among the more prominent architects in California, if not the United States, until 1951 he was prevented from designing and living in his own dream home. The vast challenges he overcame and the extraordinary achievements he made during an era of racial injustice has inspired generations of architects. The simple Craftsman style house at 1271 West 35th Street helps tell the important story of architect Paul Revere Williams and should be preserved so that we tell his full story and understand the challenges he overcame. Thank you.
