SUMMARY

The Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) is seeking retroactive approval to apply for and accept a $997,351 grant award for the Fiscal Year 2021 (FY 2021) Comprehensive Youth Violence Prevention and Reduction Program (CYVPRP) from the Department of Justice, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP). The grant award has a performance period of October 1, 2021 through September 30, 2024. No matching funds are required.

The FY 2021 CYVPRP provides funding for communities to develop and implement prevention, intervention, and suppression strategies that aim to reduce youth gun and gang violence. The LAPD, in partnership with Hollenbeck Police Activities League (HPAL) and University of Southern California's Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work developed a comprehensive youth gang-reduction program called Get-It-Straight (GIS), focused on diversion, prevention, and intervention for youths ages 10-17 in the Hollenbeck Area. Due to its successful pilot, the LAPD is proposing to expand the original initiative by implementing the Get-It-Straight Expansion Program, which will enhance the program currently in the Hollenbeck Area and expand those services to the Southwest Area.

Grant funds in the amount of $934,268 is allocated to HPAL to deliver a comprehensive intervention strategy targeting 150 youths who are in a gang or at risk of joining a gang in the LAPD’s Hollenbeck and Southwest Areas. The remaining funds will be used for training ($12,318), supplies ($5,516), and grant administration ($45,249).
