Comments for Public Posting: RE: Vahid Khorsand February 22,2022 Appointment: Public Works Commissioner Honorable City CouncilMembers, I had the pleasure of working together with Vahid as the Founder and Executive Director of Moms in Office. Vahid has not only been a champion in the San Fernando Valley making it possible for our community to meet elected officials, but he has also been a huge supporter of our organization, joining us in our fight to elect more women to Public Office. Vahid is the best candidate to be nominated for his position. His background in the private financial industry as well as his experience in government will bring so much to the table at the Public Works Commission. Most importantly, Vahid is a true Public Servant at heart. His personal experience as an immigrant, his commitment to justice and dedication to improve the lives of others in our community serve as his guiding principles. He will not only hit the ground running with the experience necessary for this position on day one, but he will also lead with integrity. Please take this opportunity to confirm him as a Commissioner. Sincerely, Simona Grace

RE: Vahid Khorsand

February 22, 2022

Appointment: Public Works Commissioner Honorable City Council Members,

I had the pleasure of working together with Vahid as the Founder and Executive Director of Moms in Office. Vahid has not only been a champion in the San Fernando Valley making it possible for our community to meet elected officials, but he has also been a huge supporter of our organization, joining us in our fight to elect more women to Public Office.

Vahid is the best candidate to be nominated for his position. His background in the private financial industry as well as his experience in government will bring so much to the table at the Public Works Commission.

Most importantly, Vahid is a true Public Servant at heart. His personal experience as an immigrant, his commitment to justice and dedication to improve the lives of others in our community serve as his guiding principles. He will not only hit the ground running with the experience necessary for this position on day one, but he will also lead with integrity.

Please take this opportunity to confirm him as a Commissioner.

Sincerely,

Simona Grace

Comments for Public Posting: I have had the pleasure and honor of serving with Vahid Khorsand on the Los Angeles City Planning Commission for many years. Vahid has always shined brightly as a leader, with passion for our city and I am in full support for his appointment to the Board of Public Works. Vahid is a unique leader who is able to see big picture while noticing all the details. He is incredibly thoughtful in his decision making and has a big heart for our city. He will be a wonderful addition to the board as a passionate ethical leader. I look forward to seeing him continue to grow and thrive in his new position and have no doubt that he will be a wonderful addition to the board. Thank you for your time.
