Comments for Public Posting: I want to express my strong support for the LA Fair Workweek Ordinance (FWW). Our retail and grocery workers deserve access to high quality jobs and scheduling stability that affords them a good quality of life, positive work-life balance, dignity, and respect. We look forward to Los Angeles joining other major cities that have passed fair scheduling policies, including New York City, San Francisco, Seattle, Philadelphia, and Chicago. Our essential workers in the retail and grocery industry should not have to keep facing the same challenges that they did prior to the pandemic. Thank you.
