Zelenne L. Cárdenas

Zelenne L. Cárdenas (she, her, ella) is the Senior Director of Prevention and Community Initiatives for Social Model Recovery Systems, a human services organization. Her extensive community-based career spans public health, homelessness, and violence prevention with a forte in fostering connections with Latinx and Black populations. Cárdenas has dedicated her life to working on behalf of people who face the most devastating manifestations of poverty in the Skid Row area of downtown Los Angeles where she has worked for 26 years. As a bilingual, civic and social justice advocate, she specializes in bringing together multi-ethnic and multi sector coalitions, building power among the people most impacted, and collaborating to develop policy and systems changes. Cárdenas has served as a consultant to the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, an agency of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and consulted with several counties throughout the State of California. She is a recipient of The California Wellness Foundation's (TCWF) Community Leader Fellowship in support of her violence prevention work. In 2004, Cárdenas was named a Local Hero of the Year by KCE_T-TV and Union Bank of California during Hispanic Heritage Month and honored with the California Peace Prize for her work in Skid Row by TCWF. In 2007, she was awarded the res Destacadas/Outstanding Woman award for her leadership by La Opinión, the leading Spanish-language daily newspaper in the U.S. In 2008, Bank of America, through its Neighborhood Excellence initiative, named her a Local Hero for her work in the Skid Row community. Cárdenas is currently a member of the Los Angeles County Ending the HIV Epidemic Steering Committee as well as a Board member of the Los Angeles Poverty Department, an arts/performance organization working with the Skid Row residents. From 2014 to 2018, she also served as a Board member of Housing California, a statewide organization focused on developing policy approaches to preventing and ending homelessness. Cárdenas is a graduate of the University of California, Los Angeles.

ERIC GARCETTI
MAYOR

July 25, 2022

Dear Ms. Cardenas:

I am pleased to inform you that I hereby reappoint you to the El Pueblo de Los Angeles Historical Monument Authority for the term ending June 30, 2026. In order to complete the process as quickly as possible, there are several steps that must be taken, many of which require visiting City Hall. If you require parking during these procedures, please contact my Commissions team by email at myr-commissions@lacity.org, to make arrangements for you.

To begin the reappointment process, please review, sign, and return the enclosed Remuneration Form and Undated Separation Letters within one week of receiving this letter. These documents are necessary to ensuring the most efficient, open, and accountable City government possible.

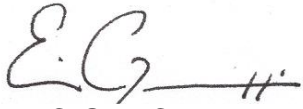

As part of the City Council confirmation process, meetings will be offered to Marqueece Harris-Dawson, your Councilmember, and Councilmember John Lee, the Chair of the Arts, Parks, Health, Education and Neighborhoods Committee, to answer any questions they may have. You will be hearing from a City Council committee clerk who will let you know when your reappointment will be considered by the Arts, Parks, Health, Education and Neighborhoods Committee. Sometime thereafter, you will be notified by the committee clerk when your reappointment will be presented to the full City Council for confirmation. Once you are confirmed, you will be required to take the oath of office in the City Clerk's Office in Room 395 of City Hall.
