SUMMARY

The Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) is seeking retroactive approval to apply for and accept a 2021 Collaborative Approaches towards Preventing and Addressing Hate Crime (Hate Crime) grant program from the United States Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA). The BJA provides assistance to local criminal justice programs that improve and reinforce the nation's criminal justice system.

The Hate Crime program offers grants to help entities prepare, design, or enhance a law enforcement-cooperative response with a comprehensive approach including outreach and education of the public, victims, agency staff and partners. The LAPD, in partnership with the Office of City Attorney and community based organizations, work collaboratively to assess and address anti-Asian hate crimes in the City of Los Angeles.

The Department applied for the 2021 Hate Crime Program by the July 2021 deadline and was awarded grant funding in the amount of $833,333. The grant award has a three-year performance period that started on October 1, 2021 and will expire on September 30, 2024. The Hate Crime Program will require the LAPD to promote effective strategies to 1. Improve the collection of anti-Asian hate crime data, 2. Improve training and education of the police, 3. Improve public education and knowledge of anti-Asian hate crime; and 4. Enhance investigations and prosecutions of offenders.

The LAPD, in partnership with the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office (LACA), the Japanese American Citizens League, the Chinatown Business Improvement District, the Little Tokyo Business Improvement District, the Mid-City West Neighborhood Council, and Research Partner, Justice and Security Strategies, Inc., will establish four Anti-Asian Hate Crime Working Groups to 1. Examine its current methods of responding to and recording hate crimes and make changes to that process and educate the public; 2. Develop anti-Asian hate crime training curricula through the Training Bureau with the assistance of community organizations; 3. Improve police-community relationships with assistance from the community partners, develop brochures in different languages, make use of social media and other outlets, and make information available on their websites; and 4. Examine the existing processes and work to improve them with LAPD detectives and LACA.

Under the terms of the grant award, the LAPD shall use funds to increase efforts by public safety officials and community based organizations to establish a model for other cities and police agencies that includes a detailed approach to collecting data; improve training and education of the police and the public; enhance investigations and prosecution of offenders; and reduce fears and incidents. The LAPD will also be required to provide performance data that measures the results of funded activities.

The LAPD will allocate grant funding in salaries for various sworn and civilian positions to support planning and training efforts on Anti-Asian hate crimes, travel and training expenses, workstations, general office supplies, and software licenses. The LAPD also proposes to enter into a contract with Justice and Security Strategies, Inc. to meet the provisions of the grant research and performance metrics, including technical assistance on the data collection and development of a strategic plan, advanced analyses, and evaluation reports. The allocation of the grant award is as follows:

Grant Award / Expense Category	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Total
