Comments for Public Posting: I am a resident of Sun Valley, and we have a homelessness crisis. Many of our un-housed neighbors are experiencing homelessness. Many of them need medical attention and social services. We have reached out to SVANC for support and they have not done enough to help. Many organizations and nonprofits are assisting their un-housed neighbors in other parts of the city whereas no organization, nonprofit, or mutual aid is helping out in east San Fernando Valley. Other neighborhood councils are doing something to help and provide assistance to the un-housed neighbors but Sun Valley and other neighborhoods such as Pacoima, Arleta, Sylmar, Sunland-Tujunga, Shadow Hills, and Lakeview Terrace don't get the support from the city and from Mutual Aid Groups such as Street Watch, DSA-LA, K-Town For All, and other Mutual Aid groups doing great work in Los Angeles. Why aren't these Mutual Aid Groups doing Mutual Aid in the East San Fernando Valley? Why are we being neglected and ostracized by the city and Mutual Aid Groups? We need support and solidarity, too! Please... HELP US!!! WE WANT COMPASSION, LOVE AND TO HELP OUR NEIGHBORS EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS!!!!
