Comments for Public Posting: To you all: I'm requesting and demanding as a citizen of Los Angeles City to obtain immediately the report from Los Angeles Housing Department that was requested and approved on your session dated June 24, 2022. This same report had been requested also on April 25, 2022. the request states to report within 30 days and we are at the mark of the 30 days now. It is necessary to terminate any eviction protection for non-payment of rent now. Tenants in city of los angeles had received financial assistance up to 18 months from House is Key an state funding policy. It is time to resume operations for housing providers and stop with the abuse of you all councilmembers when there no more financial assistance provided to neither the tenants or landlords. Please provide the report now and end this eviction protection. Tenants are working and they can afford to pay rent but they chose no to because your policy.
