Comments for Public Posting: I'm sick of hearing these tenants with their over-the-top sob stories. Spare me the "I am afraid of ending up on the street with my five kids. I will die of Covid" Shut up and pay your rent, like you said you would when you signed the contract. You've had almost three years to get your shit together. The government has helped you out MASSIVELY. Off of our backs. If you haven't gotten your finances together, after all this time, then no one can help you. You need to move somewhere less expensive and stop being a burden on hard working middle class property owners. We're struggling too, after not receiving rent for years. Contrary to your beliefs, some of us worked hard for our properties. I washed dishes, mopped floors and served food to put my self through college. When I was a tenant, I saved my hard earned money to save for a down payment. Stop making excuses and stop begging the council month, after month, after month. You're disgusting. The city council, especially Mike Bonin, is disgusting. You've foster dependence in these people. You've given them freebies for so long. It's going to be difficult when you finally take it away. The city and county will owe us hundreds of millions of dollars for the financial damage they've caused.

Comments for Public Posting: City Council, We're waiting....still waiting "Developers generally are including the minimum required [affordable] units and not a single unit more," said Amy Gustincic, with the Los Feliz Improvement Association." This is what you are looking at when you take away our properties. Just saying. Mom and Pop
