Feast From The East was founded by a local L.A. family in 1981, and has been faithfully and deliciously serving the Westwood, #UCLA, and greater Los Angeles communities for more than four decades with what has been described by many as "the best Chinese chicken salad in L.A.," along with other delectable Chinese and Pan Asian specialties. samyebri Public safety means more than just police officers and crime. It also means ensuring that businesses follow the law and keep patrons and neighborhoods safe.

Habibi Cafe in Westwood Village has a decades-long history of failing to do so. Now, on Sept 6, the City Council will consider requests by the Planning Department, West LAPD, the City Attorney, the Council Office, and the Westwood Neighborhood Council to terminate and revoke the retail use of Habibi Cafe. I support this request.

According to City reports, at this site, there have been reports of homicides, armed robberies, assaults, and repeated citations for selling alcohol without an ABC License and operating as an unlicensed after-hours nightclub without any permits, among other violations.

It's time to hold businesses accountable. Please join me in demanding that the City take action to keep our neighborhoods in #CD5 safe. #WestwoodVillage #Crime #safety #ILoveLA #Westwood Omarsaid @samyeabri Habibi is always helping control the street and traffic it gets (which it never had to do so from the beginning) and on top of that there are crime's everywhere ever since people got that "FREE MONEY" (EDD)! I go there all the time and it's one of the only places where we get treated nicely and the only place where so many celebrities hang out there. The amount of homeless crazy people that you have on the street and the spoiled kids driving extremely fast around the streets there is what you need to be focusing on. You are probably racist and it's a shame you have kids because they'll end up with your way of thinking.

erdogaan You being incompetent of your "job" is no news! What a shame that Instagram still lets you run this page of a clown show, it seems like YOU have personal issues with Habibi cafe rather than real life problems with the resultant. Saying that Habibi cafe is one unsafe spot is a false statement and you should definitely be questioned doing you accusations. Seems like you don't live in LA and have any idea of the life in Los Angeles! Wake up from your bubble and false accusations! I hope you soon will be banned from the false work you do! You are a shame for the business!

natashakiannah Okay so what about the crimes at other night life locations in Beverly Hills ... you're not posting all the other places. Please do not target this place. This place is very safe everyone there is absolutely amazing. I don't think somewhere that "horrible" would be in business this long. It's a second home to most customers. Maybe focus on other things. There's crime everywhere in la.

echoedg I think this is an unfair assessment. Habibi has been operating for decades with a handful of incidents. More importantly, the fact that crime happens in front of the restaurant does not mean that the restaurant has any control or was negligent in any way. Most importantly, places that are open all night tend to run into issues more often. The Dennys in Westwood was the most dangerous place in that whole area.

radwawelshamy Stop trying to kill businesses for your own benefit. The whole city is in shit and you just want to pick on a business that is helping feeding families and putting roofs over people's heads for more than 20 years. Habibi is history wether you like it or not. Go save the streets from homelessness and drugs instead.

miramakary @samyebri so you trying to close a business down because an incident that happened outside the restaurant ? 🤔 how is that any relevant to you wanting them close ?? Is it personal ??? Cause there is a shooting every night in LA and probably a burglary or two in your district sharia.la.faber Hi Sam if you plan on being in the running please do not publicize false information for your personal gain. It is a restaurant not a nightclub. Habibi also has ALL of the permits necessary. And it has been operating for over 20 years as a restaurant. You need to take a business course and get familiar with Los Angeles regulations. What a shame.

STOLEN SUV ENDS IN CRASH

samyebri Last night was a frightening one for my Westwood neighborhood. A police chase involving a stolen car resulted in a car crash and then a pursuit for 2 suspects on foot, 2 blocks from my home where my 4 young kids heard the helicopter overhead. Fortunately, our brave LAPD officers caught the suspects. These scary events are happening throughout #CD5 and #LA every night.

Especially troubling is the historic high in car thefts. There were 2,140 stolen-vehicle reports in July 2022, up from 1,261 in July 2019. Meanwhile, as crime spikes and criminals become more brazen, our LAPD police force is dwindling, down to 9200 from 10,000 from when I served Los Angeles as a Commissioner under Mayor Villaraigosa.

We need to fight back hard at the ballot box in November against those who claim crime is down and that we should "abolish" or "defund" the police.

June 14, 2022 ~ Los Angeles is one of the leading targets for cybercrime in the U.S., costing California over $600 million in 2020 alone.

Last year saw multitudes of varying cyberattacks, targeting L.A.'s infrastructure and innocent population.

On January 15, 2021, a water treatment plant that serves the San Francisco Bay Area was hacked. The infiltrator attempted to poison the water supply by deleting computer programs used for water treatment. Using a former employee's login details, the hacker was able to remotely access the network. The breach was noticed a day later before any damage could be done. Since then, the individual responsible has been identified.

Azusa Police Department was a target of ransomware in early 2021. Discovered on March 9, the scope of the breach was broader than first reported. The stolen data included Social Security, California ID, and driver's license numbers. Moreover, gang member contacts, crime scene photos, and confidential informants' information were posted on a dark-web site.

Later the same year, Planned Parenthood Los Angeles reported a major breach. The hacker compromised over 400,000 patients' personal data. On October 17, the healthcare provider noticed suspicious activity on their computer systems. They immediately took their network offline. The motive behind the hack still remains unknown.

In the neighboring Orange County, authorities have launched SafeOC. Similar to the national "See Something, Say Something" campaign, SafeOC is an attempt to educate the public on how to protect themselves from these attacks. SafeOC also provides a tip-line for locals who observe suspicious activity

Marvel star Frank Grillo slammed Los Angeles' rising crime following the killing of his personal boxing trainer last week.

Grillo — known for his portrayal of the Marvel character Crossbones in “Avengers” and “Captain America” films — mourned the loss of trainer Azuma Bennett, who was shot dead outside a legal marijuana dispensary in Windsor Hills Friday morning.

“He made everybody feel good about training,” Grillo told KNBC. “I don’t know what’s happened to Los Angeles that a beautiful guy like this gets shot and killed over nothing.”

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (KABC) --

Hollywood may be known around the world as the entertainment capital, but locals see it as a place where violent crime often supersedes its glitzy reputation.

"I'm here as a resident, a concerned resident," said Cathy Hood during a news conference held Wednesday morning in Hollywood. "I don't feel 100% safe."

Complaints like that have spurred the Los Angeles Police Department to add hundreds more officers to Hollywood in a force ramp-up that began seven months ago.

"That's really basically about 200 more officers out on the street here on Hollywood Boulevard," said LAPD Deputy Chief Blake Chow. "They're going to be on foot, they're going to be in patrol cars, they're going to be on horseback, they're going to be on bikes."

and said criminals may have the perception that local prosecutors are not going after them, but adds that is not the case.

"If you come here to commit crime, you will be arrested, you will be prosecuted, you will be jailed or imprisoned," said O'Farrell. "There is no permissiveness in Hollywood. We're not going to permit or tolerate that.

But just hours before Wednesday's event and just a mile away, a street robbery turned into a shooting.

LAPD said a man was shot in the chest after an armed man demanded his phone and wallet near the intersection of N. Highland Avenue and Romaine Street.

The victim was transported to a local hospital in critical condition.

The shooter remains on the run.
