DATE: September 28, 2022

TO: Honorable Members of the Rules, Elections, and Intergovernmental Relations Committee

FROM: Sharon M. Tso KKT
Chief Legislative Analyst JL Council File No. 22-0002-S87
Assignment No. 22-06-0366

SUBJECT: Resolution (Koretz – Harris-Dawson, et al.) to SUPPORT H.R. 40 (Jackson Lee)

CLA RECOMMENDATION: Adopt Resolution (Koretz – Harris-Dawson, et al.) to include in the City’s 2021-2022 Federal Legislative Program, SUPPORT for H.R. 40, which would establish the Commission to Study and Develop Reparation Proposals for African Americans to evaluate the impacts of slavery and discrimination on the social, political, and economic lives of African Americans, and make recommendations to repair those impacts.

SUMMARY

Resolution (Koretz – Harris-Dawson, et al.), introduced on May 27, 2022, advises that that approximately four million Africans and their descendants were enslaved in the U.S. and the colonies that became the U.S. from 1619 to 1865, and that the U.S. government constitutionally and statutorily sanctioned the institution of slavery from 1789 to 1865. According to the Resolution, even after 1865, the U.S. government continued to perpetuate, condone, and profit from practices that disadvantaged African Americans at the federal, state, and local levels through policies, such as Black Codes, convict leasing, Jim Crow segregation, and redlining. The Resolution further informs that African Americans continue to suffer economic, educational, and health hardships today as a result of historic and continued discrimination, and disproportionate incarceration.

H.R. 40 (Jackson Lee), currently pending in the House of Representatives, intends to establish a Commission to Study and Develop Reparation Proposals for African Americans to make recommendations concerning any form of apology and compensation to the descendants of enslaved African Americans. The Commission will evaluate the impacts of slavery and discrimination on the social, political, and economic lives of African Americans, examine the role of the federal and state governments in supporting the institution of slavery and other public and private forms of discrimination, and develop proposals for reparations. The bill’s intent aligns with City efforts to address structural and institutional racism, such as L.A. REPAIR, and economic and racial inequality, such as BIG:LEAP. The Los Angeles Reforms for Equity and Public Acknowledgement of Institutional Racism (L.A. REPAIR), the City’s first participatory budget program, aims to distribute $8.5 million to nine underserved neighborhoods. Basic Income Guaranteed: Los Angeles Economic Assistance Pilot (BIG:LEAP) will provide approximately 3,200 individuals impacted by poverty with $1,000 per month for 12 months. The Resolution requests that the City support H.R. 40.

BACKGROUND

The U.S. House of Representatives and Senate put forward resolutions in 2008 and 2009, respectively, to apologize for the institution of slavery in the U.S., but to date, no joint bill has passed. Since 1989, the House Representatives have introduced bills to apologize and propose restitution for slavery, but the U.S. federal government has not formally apologized for the fundamental injustice, cruelty, brutality, and inhumanity of slavery in the United States and the 13 American colonies between 1619 and 1865, nor has the federal government established a framework by which to consider reparations.

According to H.R. 40, African Americans continue to suffer debilitating economic, educational, and health-related hardships as a result of historic and continued discrimination in the U.S., including the incarceration of nearly one million Black people, an unemployment rate that is more than twice the current white unemployment rate, and on average, a household wealth gap that is 1/16th of the wealth of white families.

Congress has previously taken actions to apologize and/or offer redress to protected groups. After World War II, Congress created the Indian Claims Commission to compensate federally recognized tribes for land that had been seized by the U.S. The Commission paid approximately $1.3 billion to Native American tribes before it was dissolved in 1978. Congress also awarded payments to Japanese Americans who were interned by the U.S. government during World War II. The Japanese American Evacuation Claims Act of 1948 offered compensation for real and personal property lost during the internment. Approximately $37 million was paid to 26,000 claimants. In 1980, Congress appointed the Commission on Wartime Relocation and Internment of Civilians to study the effects of incarceration on Japanese Americans and potential redress. Through that work, the Civil Liberties Act of 1988 became law and offered a formal apology and $20,000 in reparations to each surviving internee who was either a U.S. citizen or legal permanent resident. More than $1.6 billion was paid to 82,219 individuals. The act acknowledged the physical and emotional damage suffered by those who were interned. The acknowledgement was celebrated by the Japanese American community, who felt they were “made whole again as American citizens.”

AB 3121 was enacted on September 30, 2020 to establish the California Task Force to Study and Develop Reparation Proposals for African Americans and charged the California Department of Justice with providing administrative, technical, and legal assistance to the Task Force. On June 1, 2022, the Task Force released an interim report that included a preliminary set of recommendations to the California Legislature. A final report is expected to be issued in 2023. The Task Force is currently hosting a series of public hearings to discuss the proposed reparations. The Task Force is the first effort in the nation by a state government to study slavery, its effects throughout American history, and the compounding harms that the federal and state governments have inflicted upon African Americans.

WHEREAS, there is federal precedent for the U.S. government to provide reparations to communities, including the millions of dollars provided to many Native American tribes for illegal land seizures that fostered the expansion of the U.S., and the compensation of $20,000 to surviving Japanese Americans and others who were interned during World War II; and

WHEREAS, H.R. 40 will create a framework for a national discussion on the enduring impact of slavery and discrimination on the lives of African Americans, and begin a process for the U.S. government to formally acknowledge and make amends for the harm, trauma, disenfranchisement, oppression, racial segregation, and government-supported denial of humanity to African Americans for more than 400 years;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, with concurrence of the Mayor, that by adoption of this Resolution, the City of Los Angeles hereby includes in its 2021-22 federal Legislative Program SUPPORT for H.R. 40 (Jackson Lee) to establish the Commission to Study and Develop Reparation Proposals for African Americans Act to evaluate the impacts of slavery and discrimination on the social, political, and economic life of African Americans, and make recommendations to repair those impacts.

A BILL

To address the fundamental injustice, cruelty, brutality, and inhumanity of slavery in the United States and the 13 American colonies between 1619 and 1865 and to establish a commission to study and consider a national apology and proposal for reparations for the institution of slavery, its subsequent de jure and de facto racial and economic discrimination against African Americans, and the impact of these forces on living African Americans, to make recommendations to the Congress on appropriate remedies, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Commission to Study
 5       and Develop Reparation Proposals for African Americans 6       Act”.

7       SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

8       (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

9               (1) approximately 4,000,000 Africans and their 10              descendants were enslaved in the United States and 11              colonies that became the United States from 1619 to 12              1865;

1           (2) the institution of slavery was constitu-
2 tionally and statutorily sanctioned by the Govern-
3 ment of the United States from 1789 through 1865;

4           (3) the slavery that flourished in the United 5 States constituted an immoral and inhumane depri-
6 vation of Africans' life, liberty, African citizenship 7 rights, and cultural heritage, and denied them the 8 fruits of their own labor;

9           (4) a preponderance of scholarly, legal, commu-
10 nity evidentiary documentation and popular culture 11 markers constitute the basis for inquiry into the on-12 going effects of the institution of slavery and its leg-13 acy of persistent systemic structures of discrimina-14 tion on living African Americans and society in the 15 United States;

16           (5) following the abolition of slavery the United 17 States Government, at the Federal, State, and local 18 level, continued to perpetuate, condone and often 19 profit from practices that continued to brutalize and 20 disadvantage African Americans, including share
21 cropping, convict leasing, Jim Crow, redlining, un-22 equal education, and disproportionate treatment at 23 the hands of the criminal justice system; and 24           (6) as a result of the historic and continued dis-

25 crimination, African Americans continue to suffer

1       debilitating economic, educational, and health hard-2       ships including but not limited to having nearly 3       1,000,000 Black people incarcerated; an unemploy-
4       ment rate more than twice the current White unem-5       ployment rate; and an average of less than  $\frac{1}{16}$  of 6       the wealth of White families, a disparity which has 7       worsened, not improved over time.

8       (b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to estab-
9       lish a commission to study and develop Reparation pro-10      posals for African Americans as a result of—

11           (1) the institution of slavery, including both the 12      Trans-Atlantic and the domestic “trade” which ex-
13      isted from 1565 in colonial Florida and from 1619 14      through 1865 within the other colonies that became 15      the United States, and which included the Federal 16      and State governments which constitutionally and 17      statutorily supported the institution of slavery;

18           (2) the de jure and de facto discrimination 19      against freed slaves and their descendants from the 20      end of the Civil War to the present, including eco-21      nomic, political, educational, and social discrimina-
22      tion;

23           (3) the lingering negative effects of the institu-24      tion of slavery and the discrimination described in

1 paragraphs (1) and (2) on living African Americans
2 and on society in the United States;

3 (4) the manner in which textual and digital in-4 structional resources and technologies are being used
5 to deny the inhumanity of slavery and the crime 6 against humanity of people of African descent in the 7 United States;

8 (5) the role of Northern complicity in the 9 Southern based institution of slavery;

10 (6) the direct benefits to societal institutions,
11 public and private, including higher education, cor-
12 porations, religious and associational;

13 (7) and thus, recommend appropriate ways to 14 educate the American public of the Commission's 15 findings;

16 (8) and thus, recommend appropriate remedies
17 in consideration of the Commission's findings on the 18 matters described in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), 19 (5), and (6); and

20 (9) submit to the Congress the results of such 21 examination, together with such recommendations.

22 SEC. 3. ESTABLISHMENT AND DUTIES.

23 (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is established the Com-24 mission to Study and Develop Reparation Proposals for

1 African Americans (hereinafter in this Act referred to as 2 the “Commission”).

3 (b) DUTIES.—The Commission shall perform the fol-
4 lowing duties:

5 (1) Identify, compile and synthesize the relevant
6 corpus of evidentiary documentation of the institu-7 tion of slavery which existed within the United 8 States and the colonies that became the United 9 States from 1619 through 1865. The Commission’s 10 documentation and examination shall include but not 11 be limited to the facts related to—

12 (A) the capture and procurement of Afri-
13 cans;

14 (B) the transport of Africans to the United 15 States and the colonies that became the United 16 States for the purpose of enslavement, including 17 their treatment during transport;

18 (C) the sale and acquisition of Africans as 19 chattel property in interstate and intrastate
20 commerce;

21 (D) the treatment of African slaves in the 22 colonies and the United States, including the 23 deprivation of their freedom, exploitation of 24 their labor, and destruction of their culture, 25 language, religion, and families; and

1           (E) the extensive denial of humanity, sexual 2           abuse and the chattelization of persons.

3           (2) The role which the Federal and State govern-
4           ments of the United States supported the institu-
5           tion of slavery in constitutional and statutory provi-
6           sions, including the extent to which such govern-7           ments prevented, opposed, or restricted efforts of 8           formerly enslaved Africans and their descendants to 9           repatriate to their homeland.

10          (3) The Federal and State laws that discrimi-11          nated against formerly enslaved Africans and their 12          descendants who were deemed United States citizens 13          from 1868 to the present.

14          (4) The other forms of discrimination in the 15          public and private sectors against freed African 16          slaves and their descendants who were deemed 17          United States citizens from 1868 to the present, in-18          cluding redlining, educational funding discrepancies, 19          and predatory financial practices.

20          (5) The lingering negative effects of the institu-
21          tion of slavery and the matters described in para-22          graphs (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6) on living Afri-
23          can Americans and on society in the United States.

24          (6) Recommend appropriate ways to educate 25          the American public of the Commission's findings.

1           (7) Recommend appropriate remedies in consid-
2           eration of the Commission's findings on the matters 3           described in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), and 4           (6). In making such recommendations, the Commis-
5           sion shall address among other issues, the following 6           questions:

7                   (A) How such recommendations comport 8                   with international standards of remedy for 9                   wrongs and injuries caused by the State, that 10                  include full reparations and special measures, 11                  as understood by various relevant international 12                  protocols, laws, and findings.

13                  (B) How the Government of the United 14                  States will offer a formal apology on behalf of 15                  the people of the United States for the per-16                  petration of gross human rights violations and 17                  crimes against humanity on African slaves and 18                  their descendants.

19                  (C) How Federal laws and policies that 20                  continue to disproportionately and negatively 21                  affect African Americans as a group, and those 22                  that perpetuate the lingering effects, materially 23                  and psycho-social, can be eliminated.

24                  (D) How the injuries resulting from mat-
25                  ters described in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4),

1 (5), and (6) can be reversed and provide appro-
2 priate policies, programs, projects and rec-3 ommendations for the purpose of reversing the 4 injuries.

5 (E) How, in consideration of the Commis-6 sion's findings, any form of compensation to the 7 descendants of enslaved African is calculated.

8 (F) What form of compensation should be 9 awarded, through what instrumentalities and 10 who should be eligible for such compensation.

11 (G) How, in consideration of the Commis-
12 sion's findings, any other forms of rehabilita-13 tion or restitution to African descendants is 14 warranted and what the form and scope of 15 those measures should take.

16 (c) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—The Commission shall 17 submit a written report of its findings and recommenda-18 tions to the Congress not later than the date which is one 19 year after the date of the first meeting of the Commission
