Comments for Public Posting: city council, your continued efforts to do the WRONG thing has marked your legacy as the worst council in recent history, with the exception of good ole days of City Hall criming. Bonin is loathed throughout his (EX)district and Saint DeLeon is not far behind (Seriously, is there ANYTHING the man won't put his name and picture on? That is such pathetic pandering.) Karen, in the debate, added us as an afterthought (and it was funny, you could actually see in her face how she suddenly remembered the mom&pops) and added, hey they need help too. But what help she did not and will not clarify following your example. So, your adamant refusal to lift the moratorium and decision to continue to hold our properties hostage in an illegal eminent domain-like fraud has left us no choice. We mom&pops are going to the media and surprisingly we are welcomed as no one likes to see the Big Guys take over little guys and their small businesses. While the Big Guys are readying lawsuits. The fact that just among us few who are very proactive and sponsored by thousands of mom&pops who are behind us, are now owed over $600K because of failure of Housing is Key and your inability to stop the "self-declaration" fraud. That's a very small number of us who are owed a great deal of money and it grows every single day. This is becoming a mini fraud like our Government is now going through finding that millions PLUS were illegally funded during the pandemic. I believe you have hugely underestimated our desperation and we are at the point of you literally ruining our lives. I guess you might not know this as you use your deputies to fend us off. They step in when we call and get angry at us for our calls. I wonder how any of you, or all those assistants the city funds, would feel if your income was cut by as much as 80 percent or even as little as 50% and you had absolutely no control over your own property. Somehow, If you had the patience and the empathy to actually look at it that way, maybe you would pull up your elected representative pants, stop acting like dictators, remember that it is US who elected you, and enabled you to get those generous salaries and do the right thing. HERE IS THE RIGHT THING: Lift the Moratorium. The Pandemic is over and we know it and you know it and what you are doing is illegal and we know it and you know it. Bass said in her debate, following apparently the lead of a large portion of the 15 of you: and this as an afterthought after droning on about homeless as have you for years, oh, and we want to help the mom&pops too!! Let's hope she doesn't mean following your example because you have not, will not and do NOT help. You can't even stand to hear from us. That's too bad, for you. We will get our properties back and you, as city government will be forced to deal with the city problems as you were elected to fix, but that your apathy and inability caused. You will release our properties..
