Comments for Public Posting: Dear Council Members, Signing onto the Plant Based Treaty is one of a multitude of moves that cities must make as soon as possible to work against the wholesale destruction of life in earth's biosphere caused by greedy livestocking. Los Angeles has this chance to take this stand and encourage other cities around the U.S. and the World to do so also. I'm a Californian and I look forward to the signing of the Plant Based Treaty in Los Angeles!
