Please don't tear down the Pacific Dining Car

It's an important iconic restaurant to Los Angeles. It has great steaks, great vibe and more importantly it has positive history in LA — which we need more of in this city!!

I look forward to having another celebratory meal at Pacific Dining Car when you save it from being torn down!!

Thank you!!

Hello!!!

Please bring back PACIFIC DINING CAR!!!

I was pregnant with triplet boys back in 1995 and on immediate bed rest. The only place my husband would sneak me out to was PDC because the hospital was across the street. My husband grew up going to PDC, our children grew up going there after USC games, Dodger games or even just a drive up to LA from the OC for PDCs amazing brunch.

Please bring back PDC

To whom it may concern,

My parents first took me to this restaurant for my 21 birthday and many there after and I kept up with the tradition and have been taking my sons for their birthdays and special occasions. I would love to keep this tradition up please don't destroy this lovely place with so much history, not everything has to be shiny and new.

Hi,

I have lived in LA for 22 years (Los Feliz and DTLA), having moved here from Chicago as soon as I graduated from college. I was introduced to the Pacific Dining Car shortly after arriving and have enjoyed many a memorable meal at its tables.

I loved the fact you could go there on any night and at any time and run into someone with whom you'd have an incredible conversation. The living history at the PDC was real and deep.

I urge you to grant the PDC its historic designation. It is an LA icon very worthy of preservation.

Best regards,

I am writing in regards to the Pacific Dining Car , and the request to declare it a historical landmark. Before closing I was a frequent visitor to the Dining Car for breakfast and dinner. It was a very special place to meet with friends, and one of the few places where you could linger at the table and not feel rushed to leave. Probably one of the most unique, if not the most unique dining establishment in Los Angeles, where the connected railroad cars created a feeling of actually dining on a train. It would be a huge mistake to allow a place with that kind of history to be torn down, and I look forward to once again dining in that great restaurant.

Thank-you for allowing me to express my opinion .

Dear Planning Land Use and Management Committee,

I write to you today to give my support and to ask that you please preserve the Pacific Dining Car. It has been a staple of Los Angeles for 101 years. That decade after decade long record of bringing folks together, for their famous steaks or some late night drinks is historic! Please designate and protect the entire building. I can't bear to think of Los Angeles losing such a vibrant beating heart of our city.

I'm a citizen and registered voter in the city of Los Angeles. And here in tinsel town, Pacific Dining Car restaurant has been a special meeting place. I'm a picture editor. A proud union member of I.A.T.S.E, local 700, the Motion Picture Editors Guild. Throughout the years of my career, the Pacific Dining Car holds a special place in my heart. I felt lucky to be taken there for a delicious "we finished editing the picture" celebration meal on various feature film projects. Pacific Dining Car welcomed our team within their warm walls and those memories continue to fill me with joy.

I implore you to save Pacific Dining Car. So many memories there mean so much to our community here in Los Angeles. Please don't let the City of Angels lose this historic and treasured gathering place.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Pamela March

To whom it may concern,

Historic Designation paves the way for restoration.

PDC has been a 24-hour sanctuary for the literary & entertainment world, a bridge between many vibrant L.A. communities, a setting for political and personal deal-making, and a place for family celebrations for around 100 years.

LET'S NOT LOSE ANOTHER LEGACY BUSINESS IN LOS ANGELES.

Historic buildings also provide film locations to the burgeoning entertainment industry in Los Angeles. The rise in streaming services has unleashed the need for more locations and sound stages, as the entertainment boom is in full throttle currently.

Thank you

Dear PLUM Committee,

This email is to express my urgent request for you to designate Pacific Dining Car in Downtown LA with a historic designation and keep the restaurant as a mainstay in Los Angeles. We have already lost the beloved location in Santa Monica and to rid the city of the Los Angeles location would be to take away a historical treasure. From the comforting ambiance to the amazing food to the memories that are created in this historical building, Pacific Dining Car allows families, couples, individuals to enjoy a comforting meal from another time, transporting us back to the days of traveling in trains and eating upscale, delicious food.

We Los Angeles residents love Pacific Dining Car and need this restaurant to stay. Thank you for your time and understanding.

Sincerely,
Kristina Magpayo Nyden
Los Angeles Resident and Pacific Dining Car Fan
